EXPERIENCE

M & S Fashion, Poland | Sales Assistant

2005 - 2006

I worked as a sales assistant for a company in Poland that was offering consultation and tailoring services for men. My job profile included assisting the sales managers in their meetings with clients and handling paperwork. I assisted with order management and follow up of pending orders.

M & S Fashion, Hungary| Sales Manager

2006-2007

I completed my training in Poland and started heading the Sales team for the same company in their Hungarian division. My job profile included setting up and conducting meeting with prospective clients. One of my main tasks was to introduce the clients to our fabric collection and stylebook. The other main tasks were to carry out orders and maintain contact and quality control with our manufacturers.

Stan Ahuja Couture | CEO and Founder

2007 – date

Currently as the Founder and CEO of my own fashion consulting and tailoring company, I head a team of 25 people to service our growing catalogue of almost 2,000 clients. In 2009, the company opened a flagship store in Budapest, Hungary. Since then we expanded the business to Bucharest, Prague, Geneva, Vienna and London. In 2015, the company opened its second store in Bucharest, Romania. Altogether, the company services a database of almost 3,000 clients and produces over 10,000 pieces of luxury garments for men per annum.
